

THE NEXT 125

In 2022, YWCA Metro Vancouver will celebrate 125 years of changing lives.

In 2018, we launched a five-year fundraising and engagement campaign called The Next 125. The Next 125 is driven by a group of passionate individuals and families who are transforming their communities through donations of $25,000 or more.

COMMUNITY IMPACT

TOGETHER WE CAN RAISE $12.5M

With the support of a committed group of donors and Ambassadors, The Next 125 campaign is exceeding expectations. To further our impact and ensure our work continues for another 125 years, we are increasing our goal to $12.5M by 2022.

LEARN

- Attend a Next 125 Salon – an intimate gathering at a supporter’s home for a discussion on gender equality issues.
- Strengthen your advocacy skills – attend a Next 125 advocacy workshop.

SUPPORT

- Give to the area most meaningful to you – invest where you see the greatest need.
- Host an event that benefits the YWCA and showcases your passion for gender equality.

CONNECT

YOUR INTEREST

The YWCA offers a diverse range of programs and services for women, children and youth. Please contact us to discuss additional projects that you can support as part of The Next 125 campaign.

We believe in the capacity and resilience of single mothers and their children. With collaboration, inclusion and reconciliation as our guides, together we can create a safe, healthy, vibrant future where all families can thrive. Please join us.

Make an annual gift, pledge your support over multiple years, leave a gift in your will or gather your friends for an event or group donation.
